

Really, Doug? Seriously?

DOUG! AGAIN?

I've been thinking all day about what I was going to post here. And after pondering over and over, I just can't come up with anything but "tell it like it is"! So here we go...

Monday morning, April 25th dawned with Doug deciding it was time for everyone to get up and have breakfast at 6:15 a.m. He barked at Edi to get out of bed and feed him. Stella heard him bark and came running. She, of course, loves breakfast, too! They were both happy and excited and started running to the kitchen, playing and dancing just like every morning. As they were playing, Doug let out a yelp, but then went back after Stella. Edi looked and saw his leg was at a very strange angle.

THANK YOU! THANK YOU! THANK YOU...

... for all of the good thoughts, karma, prayers and wishes. Believe me - it's the love that Doug is getting from around the world that shines in his eyes. Doug was a "Nothing" when he lived in that mill. He didn't even have a name. He was not loved or cared for or comforted. He could be injured or sick, and he was left to his own devices to either live or die - with no concern to his pain or well being. Doug just seemed to keep going - knowing that some day he'd be loved. Fighting to live for that chance was worth it. And now, Doug is so much more than Nothing. He is a dog that is "Everyone's Pet". So many love and care about him.

Doug says THANK YOU to Dr. Judi Funk and Dr. Sara Williams and the staff at Compassionate Care Animal Hospital, and Dr. Lara Rasmussen from the Veterinary Surgical Specialists. And especially to Edi for being such a good dog Mom and keeping a good eye on him and making sure he gets all of his medications and love and especially for giving him breakfast and dinner every day!

~Love to all of you from Doug
