

JESSY'S STORY

Jessy is a ten year old spayed female that is looking for her forever home. Jessy is full of energy and is a very happy go lucky little dog.

She is doing really well in her crate, doing stairs and not doing too bad at her leash walking skills.

She really needs a home of her own to be the queen she really is.

She needs a home that has some terrier experience and will help her learn what it is like to live in a house.

Please feel free to fill out an application and ask about Jessy.
