

MYAH'S STORY

Myah is 9 yrs old and doing very well with her foster family. Lydia, David and their 12 yr old daughter Beatrice have fallen in love with hits sweet little old foxie. Our other WFT rescue Oliver who is 3 yrs old is learning to get along with Myah and they are now playing tag in the back yard as well as fetch with the ball. It took Myah a good week or more to run around the yard without a leash and find her legs for running and playing. But she is very active now! House broken and very affectionate, I think Myah will do just fine adjusting to the good life of a loving home and family.

Please fill out an application and state Myah if you are interested in adopting her and taking time to learn about how it is to be a loved pet.
